STATE SPEECH TOURNAMENT MEDAL RECORDS — 1969-2003

Apple Valley in Class AA and Walker-Hackensack-Akeley in Class A lead their respective classes in number of medals earned at State Speech Tournaments from 1969 through 2003. The year 1969 marked the first year in which a preliminary round and final round resulted in awarding medals to the top three place winners in each division. The first two-class competition was held in 1976. In 1979 the number of medals awarded in each of the 11 categories of competition increased from three to six. In 1989 the number of categories increased to 12. In 1990 medals were awarded to each of the finalists through eighth place. In 1993, the Dramatic Duo category was added making the number of categories 13. In 2002 the format changed to qualify three entries from each section in each category, and having three preliminary rounds at the State Tournament before the finals. Since 1969 students from 376 member schools have won medals at the State Speech Tournament

Spotlighting the fine arts

Perfecting that transition. Mixing the most amazing color. Hitting the note. Rehearsing it one more time. Making that summary statement sing. Getting that homework finished. Hating your alarm clock.

Students who participate in the fine arts work hard. Their commitment is unwavering. Their creativity is amazing. And their accomplishments are outstanding.

Wells Fargo honors the more than 100,000 student artists, musicians, actors and speech participants in Minnesota. We congratulate those who receive Spotlight Awards of Excellence for outstanding performances in the fine arts. The Spotlight Awards of Excellence are given for starred performances at the One Act Play Festival, to all semi-finalists in the Lincoln-Douglas and Policy Debate Tournament, to the champions in the Speech Tournament and the Best of Site recipients at section Music and Visual Arts Contests.

Your dedication is admirable and your spirit is inspirational.

Wells Fargo is proud to be the premier corporate partner of the Minnesota State High School League.

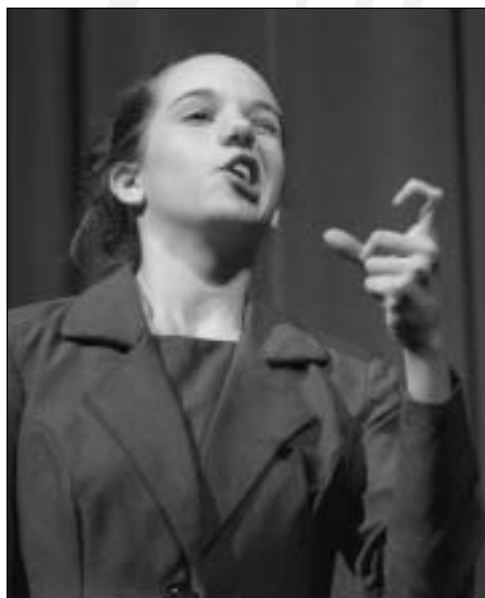

2003 TOURNAMENT REVIEW

Mounds Park Academy and Apple Valley each win 16 medals; Eagan's Finley wins third gold medal

Class A

Of the eight returning gold medalists, three succeeded in winning events again this year at the 2003 Minnesota State High School League Class A State Speech Tournament. Junior Chris Kehoe of Mounds Park Academy, St. Paul, returned in Serious Interpretation of Drama and finished first again. Junior Jacob Swenson of Staples-Motley, who won top honors with a partner in Dramatic Duo last year, finished first in Humorous Interpretation this year for his third overall state tournament medal. Senior Danelle Wildermuth of Pipestone-Jasper, last year's Serious Interpretation of Poetry champion, finished first in Serious Interpretation of Prose this year.

The other five returning champions did not fare as well. Senior Tyler Sunderman of LeSueur-Henderson/MN New Country finished as runner-up in Discussion. Junior Liz Kraut of Mounds Park Academy finished runner-up in Extemporaneous Speaking. Junior Catie Camacho of Mounds Park Academy finished sixth in Informative Speaking. Senior Drew Kelley of Mountain Lake/Butterfield-Odin and senior Michael Choinard of Aitkin did not place this year.

Rachel Payne of Mounds Park Academy, St. Paul, took top honors in Class A Great Speeches.

Mounds Park Academy, St. Paul, had four winners and nine other schools had one winner each. The other 2003 champions were: junior Dan Foster of St. Anthony Village in Creative Expression; senior Erik Sand of Mounds Park Academy in Extemporaneous Speaking; junior Jesi Mullins of Crookston in Storytelling; senior Jill Bailey of Belle Plaine in Informative

2003 REVIEW

Speaking; junior Joe Basel of Minnesota Valley Lutheran, New Ulm, in Discussion; junior Krystle Holk of Walker-Hackensack-Akeley in Serious Interpretation of Poetry; Luke Nicholson and Zander Coomes of Mounds Park Academy in Dramatic Duo; senior Megan O'Keefe of DeLaSalle, Minneapolis, in Extemporaneous Reading; ninth-grader Rachel Payne of Mounds Park Academy in Great Speeches; and senior Scott Melamed of The Blake School, Minneapolis, in Original Oratory.

Mounds Park Academy, which qualified 23 individuals, led all teams in total medal count with 16. Walker-Hackensack-Akeley qualified 20 and brought home 13 medals. St. Cloud Cathedral was third highest with six medal-winners. With medals awarded to as many as eight top finishers, students awarded medals for their 2003 state tournament performances represented 42 schools.

The field of competitors included 41 who won medals in 2002, 33 of whom competed in the same category. There were 94 Class A teams represented at the tournament, conducted at Centennial High School in Circle Pines on Friday, April 11. There were 223 Class A teams that competed in speech statewide this year.

Walker-Hackensack-Akeley, with one winner, now can claim 28 state champions between 1969 and 2003, good for fourth place on the list of Most State Champions-All Classes. Three Class AA schools, Apple Valley, Forest Lake, and Eagan rank above Walker-Hackensack-Akeley. With its 13 medals this year, Walker-Hackensack-Akeley still tops the list of top medal-winning Class A schools with 143. Mankato Loyola had one medalist this year and the school ranks a distant second with 81.

Rachel Bjorhus of Dilworth-Glyndon-Felton earned her fourth medal this year, an eighth-place finish in Original Oratory, and becomes only the 15th such achiever in all classes. Bjorhus, a senior, was third, second, and second in the same category in 2000, 2001, and 2002, respectively.

Twenty-four students earned their second medals this year: sophomore Andy Rotchadl of Mankato Loyola; junior Catie Camacho of Mounds Park Academy; junior Chris Kehoe of medals. Gold medals were awarded to competitors from 10 different schools.

The Class AA field featured 39 returning 2002 medalists. Four champions returned, each seeking gold medals in different categories this year. Senior Tom Finley of Eagan, who won Creative Expression last year, won his third gold medal in Humorous Interpretation, and his fourth overall. Junior Natalie Sintek of Eagan, who claimed last year's championship in Storytelling, won another gold medal in Creative Expression. Senior Whitney Schaefer of Eagan, who won top honors with partner Bret Hemmerlin in Dramatic Duo in 2002, finished third in Serious Interpretation of Drama for her fourth career medal. Senior Sheila Pechacek of Benilde-St. Margaret's, who won Informative Speaking last year, finished third in Extemporaneous Speaking, earning the third medal of her career.

The other 2003 champions were: sophomore Gena Haugen of Apple Valley in Extemporaneous Reading; senior Sarah Bane of Apple Valley in Storytelling; junior Tim Hogan of Apple Valley in Extemporaneous Speaking; senior Dan Dobbe of Benilde-St. Margaret's in Informative Speaking; senior Amanda Haugdahl of Duluth Denfeld in Serious Interpretation of Drama; junior Laura Joachim of Forest Lake in Serious Interpretation of Poetry; senior Ashley Frerich of Marshall in Discussion; junior Hugh Kennedy of Moorhead in Serious Interpretation of Prose; senior Grant Bendix of St. Cloud Tech in Original Oratory; senior Mariah Cavett of St. Peter in Great Speeches; and Katie Hines and Mathew Gamble of Woodbury in Dramatic Duo.

Apple Valley remains atop the all-class gold medal tally list for state tournaments from 1969 to 2003 with a total of 57. Forest Lake added a single gold medal this year and remains in second place with 40. Eagan earned two golds this year and stands third with a total of 32. With medals awarded to as many as eight top finishers, students awarded medals for their 2003 tournament performances represented 32 teams.

Apple Valley's 1969-2003 medal count now stands at 231, far atop the all-time medal-winner list for schools now classified as Class AA. Forest Lake won three medals this year and continues to hold the second spot on that list with a count of 167. Eagan's 14 medals keeps the school in third place with 141. Marshall's fourth-place total on the all-time list now stands at 114.

Benilde-St. Margaret's led the field by qualifying 31 individuals. Apple Valley and Centennial of Circle Pines each had 21 qualifiers. The tournament featured the top three qualifiers from each of eight Class AA sections in 13 different speech categories. The 2003 tournament qualifiers represented 65 Class AA teams. Students from 363 Minnesota high schools participated in speech during the current school year on 223 Class A teams and 121 Class AA teams.

Eagan seniors Tom Finley and Whitney Schaefer join an elite list of competitors who have earned four medals in state speech tournament competition from 1969 to 2003. They become the 16th and 17th students to achieve that status. Finley also joined an even more elite list of students to earn three gold medals. He is only the second student to achieve that status. Finley finished second in Creative Expression in 2000, won Humorous Interpretation in 2001, won Creative Expression in 2002, and won Humorous Interpretation this year. Schaefer was the runner-up in Storytelling in 2000 and 2001, won Dramatic Duo in 2002 with partner Bret Hemmerlin, and finished third this year in Serious Interpretation of Drama.

Five students earned their third medals: sen-

The Next Stage®

Whatever the reason, we're there to support the students.

Some students are in it for the arts, or maybe it's sports, or one of the dozens of after-school activities that are available. Whatever the reason, it's the ability to compete, participate or simply enjoy that attracts them. And that's where we ride in. Along with the Minnesota State High School League, Wells Fargo wants to give our children every chance to grow, succeed and smile. We want to give them the opportunities to go wherever their passions take them.

Wells Fargo is proud to be the premier partner of the Minnesota State High School League.
